

Plymouth Thanksgiving Parade – Nov. 19, 2011

The Plymouth Thanksgiving Parade is the 2nd largest Thanksgiving parade in the country. The parade progresses from the early days in Plymouth through colonization, the revolution, and on to modern day. Fifteen Pilgrim cadets were joined by three from Coastal Patrol 18. Eight Pilgrim seniors, a parent and a cadet's sister also marched. A parade highlight was a C-5 flyover. The following pages contain other parade scenes.

Tens of thousands lined the parade route

Timeless Story that Began Over
12,000 Years Ago ...

