

Boys & Girls Club rocketry

August 16, 2013. After a three-day rain delay, we finally were able to conduct the program. We gave a short talk about the dangers of drugs and a slightly longer lesson on rocketry physics (Newton's Three Laws of motion), we helped the campers build and launch their rockets.

Joseph launched his rocket six times!

