

State Police hangar – July 9, 2013

It was fitness testing night, thus the running gear. The police gave a short video presentation, took questions and talked a little about what makes helicopters fly. Then cadets got some hands-on experience with the aircraft.

