

Thanksgiving parade – November 23

Twenty one Pilgrim cadets and seniors marched in the 2014 Plymouth Thanksgiving parade before huge crowds. The day was cool and breezy, but bright and sunny. Lots of floats, many the same as last year, so not pictured here. A fun parade and everyone did an outstanding job. A chicken dinner at the VFW ended the day, with cadets serenaded by a female wartime tribute trio. Also featured, salutes to the Boston Marathon, the Red Sox, and several presidents, including JFK.
